Karla Edgar Wears '58 Crown

By Linda Mugridge

All hail the queen — Karla Edgar of Oklahoma City, Okla.

Elected by the Wartburg Student Body Tuesday to reign over Wartburg's 1958 Homecoming, Karla is attended by an all-junior court, Darlene Arns, Shirley Campbell, Barbara Knoll and Dolores McMahan.

Karla Kept Busy

A biology-education major, Karla, a senior, belongs to Beta Beta Beta, Student Education Association and Dorm Council. Last year she served on Student Senate and was president of her dorm.

Royalty isn't a new experience for her either. When a freshman, Karla was elected Spring Sports Queen and Kampus Carnival Queen. A taste of the Homecoming court was hers last year when she served as attendant.

Queen Engaged

"Bob, Bob, Bob" is her main hobby, the Bob in question being Bob Bracklein, Mason City to who she is engaged. They plan to be married in August. Bracklein, former Wartburg student, intends to re-enroll here second semester and graduate with Karla.

Wartburg's 1958 Homecoming queen, brown-haired, hazel-eyed Karla, when asked her reactions to being chosen Homecoming Queen, remarked, "I'm very pleased — there's no doubt about that!"

Darlene From Waverly

Another Spring Sports Queen, Darlene Arns, is a member of the court. A Waverly resident, Darlene is aiming for a career in Christian day school teaching. She is vice president of Phebes and belongs to SEA. Music, biking and tennis rank high on her list of hobbies.

When asked her feelings about being a court member, Darlene said, "I feel very humble to be Homecoming attendant for such a wonderful Student Body."

Shirley Surprised!

"Oh, it can't be!" exclaimed Shirley Campbell when told that she had been elected to the court.

Five feet two, eyes of blue, brown hair too, Shirley is an elementary education major. From Maquoketa, she is secretary-treasurer of the Women's Coordinating Board, librarian of SEA and a member of her dorm council. When not occupied with these activities, Shirley likes to go horseback riding, dance and read.

Barb Has Pony Tail

That glossy brown pony tail so often seen in the dean of students' office belongs to business education major Barbara Knoll of Mason City, another court member. In addition to her secretarial job there, Barbara is a cheerleader and belongs to the Women's Athletic Association. She is engaged to soph Dave Jensen.

Barbara, who was an attendant to the Winter Sports Queen last year, exclaimed over her selection, "I'm greatly surprised and pleased."

Dolores Completes Court

Completing Wartburg's 1958 Homecoming Court is Dolores McMahan, music major from Silver City. Blue-eyed with sun-bleached brown hair, a result of teaching swimming during the summer, Dolores is a member of Choir and Music Educators' National Conference. She lists swimming, dancing and roller-skating as favorite hobbies.

Said Dolores, "I felt so happy to be one of the semi-finalists. Because the competition was so stiff, I never thought I'd be on the court."

TH'S'LL SUIT YOU

Sir Victor, Knightly

"Even A Knight Has To Relax After HC"

By Grace Jahn

What could be more Knightly than a suit of armor named Sir Victor, worn by a student body president, astride a horse, leading a Homecoming parade?

Well, if you're a loyal Wartburger, you'd probably answer, "Nothing, of course! Wartburg — castle — Knight — suit of armor — it all ties in."

Although Sir Victor may look like a direct import from the Middle Ages, he actually was purchased by the 1953 Wartburg graduating class. Victor was made to order by Hans Lukas, chief costumer of the Wuertemberg Staats-theater in Stuttgart, Germany, for $250 plus transportation costs.

Sir Victor consists of 14 separate pieces, plus feathers and a shield, and is adjustable to fit nearly all shapes and sizes of student body presidents.

Destined to be worn on Homecoming and to reign over basketball games and wrestling matches during the rest of the year, Sir Victor took up his lofty post in the Knights Gym alongside the basketball scoring table.

However, Victor's future was not to be so placid, for arch Wartburg rival, Luther College, twice kidnapped the armor. Unfortunately, Wartburg students did not discover Victor's disappearance for two weeks.

Restored to his position at Wartburg, Victor continued to reign in peace until last spring when he was found to be missing again. Quick investigation proved that traditional Knight-stealer Luther College had struck again.

Not to be daunted in the valiant effort to have Sir Victor reside in the gym, the 1958 graduating class donated the glass case in which the armor now rests.

Bob Loslo, former Wartburg Trumpet columnist and 1958 graduate, informed Wartburg students that since the senior class purchased a glass case for the Knight, Luther's senior class was purchasing an ample supply of glasscutters.

However, Wartburg students are confident that the Knightly suit of armor will always be around to be worn by all future student body presidents in all future Homecoming parades.

CHAIR, MAN?

Fuchs Ends HC Standing Up

By Winonah Hope

Work goes on at an accelerated pace for Paul Fuchs, general chairman of the Homecoming Committee, as Homecoming festivities progress.

Fuchs is a second semester senior at Wartburg and is majoring in German. In addition to being general chairman of the Homecoming Committee, he is on the Artist Series Committee and was a Parish Mission Builder this summer.

After graduation, he plans on staying home for one semester and then entering the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, in the fall of 1959.

His work on Homecoming committees began in his sophomore year when he was in charge of the banquet ticket sales. He was elected as general chairman last spring and began writing letters to committee members and planning for this year's Homecoming in May.

Duties Many

As general chairman, it is Fuchs' duty to see that everything is organized, arrange for the speakers and appoint committees to take care of the various functions.

When asked what his biggest problem in connection with planning for Homecoming was, he replied, "I had arranged for a speaker and he notified me later that because of previous engagements, he would be unable to attend."

Another thing that presents a problem for the committee is the fact that the decorations for tonight's dance in Knights Gym will have to be taken down early because the Danish Symphony Orchestra will appear on stage tomorrow night.

Fuchs Enjoys Job

Fuchs stated that the part he enjoyed most about being chairman of the committee was working with the 19 subchairmen. The part most disliked, typing letters.

When asked what his most important task for this week would be, he replied, "Everything has to go into action, and I have to see that the various tasks are done."

According to Fuchs, this year's Homecoming consists of the usual traditional events, including the parade, the game, the banquet and the dance.

SENIOR PAUL FUCHS, Tripoli, this year's general chairman for Homecoming, pauses for three minutes to make one of many phone calls. At latest report, Paul is still going strong, despite impossible tasks.

To sum up his feelings concerning the approach of Homecoming, he said, "I am looking forward to a good Artist Series, a good game and a successful banquet and dance. I am also looking forward to seeing a good crowd at the dance."

Welcome Back, Alumni!

THIS MUST BE THE PLACE! How long has it been since you've been here? Hope you enjoy your stay.

Monitoring Course Is Offered Here

By Bill Goetz

Wartburg College is one of the nation's first schools to offer a course for students and area residents in radio-logical monitoring.

With an enrollment of about thirty, the class is meeting weekly on Thursday evenings at 7 p.m. in Room 312 of Luther Hall for 32 one-hour sessions. The first class meeting was held Oct. 16.

Dangers of atomic warfare and lack of preparedness for it in America led Civil Defense leaders to conduct a pilot course in skills valuable to civilians in time of atomic warfare at the State University of Iowa the past spring. One of the participants in this course was Dr. A. W. Swensen of the Wartburg Chemistry Department, who qualified to act as instructor in such a course here at Wartburg.

Government Loans Gear

The federal government has made a loan of $11,000 worth of equipment useful in measuring radioactivity to Wartburg, including Geiger counters, dosimeters and survey meters, as well as radioactive cobalt 60, which serves as a source of radiation in class experiments.

Students in the course will become skilled in taking readings of the radioactivity in their own communities and in the method of communicating this information to clearing centers, such as Waverly, where the information will be correlated before being sent on to regional headquarters, such as Des Moines.

Values Obvious

Such information would be invaluable to Civil Defense leaders in determining areas of highest radioactive contamination in the event of atomic attack. Civilians could be ordered from these areas in time to save lives and casualties.

Radioactivity of food and water would also be of extreme importance in wartime, and students in this course will learn to measure it. In addition to practical skills, the students will become well-acquainted with the theoretical background of the course through the use of text materials prepared by leading scientists and distributed by the government.

Moehl, Max Talk At Meet

Miss Erna B. Moehl, of the Wartburg English Department, and Dr. Herbert Max, of the Education Department, were two of the featured speakers at the Christian Day School Association meeting at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Waverly, Oct. 22-24.

Miss Moehl spoke on "Growth in the Language Arts," and Dr. Max discussed "Growth in Importance of Education in the Public Eye."

Other featured speaker was D. A. Vetter, principal of the Christian Day School, Blue Island, Ill., who spoke on "Growing in Our Commitment to the Christian Day School Cause."

Fall Senior Day Set For Nov. 8

Fall senior day for prospective students will be held here Nov. 8.

Schedule of the day's activities is as follows: Registration from 8 to 9:30 a.m., welcome program from 9:30 to 10 a.m., counseling 10:05-12:10, campus tours and admissions counseling 12:30-1:30, football, Wartburg vs. Central, 1:30 p.m.

Many HC Plans? Keep Books Oper.

During the excitement of Homecoming, Wartburg students must also prepare for midsemester examinations.

Exams will start next Monday. Because of the fall choir tour, midsemesters will be the eighth week instead of the ninth.

Pastors Speak At Conference

The Rev. Edwin Schick, Christianity Department, and the Rev. August Baetke, of the Sociology Department, will speak at the Waterloo Pastoral Conference fall meeting being held at Bethel Lutheran Church, Parkersburg, Oct. 28 and 29.

Pastor Schick will talk to the conference Tuesday on "Mark 13." Pastor Baetke's talk is entitled "A Statistical Study" and will be given on Wednesday.

Librarians Attend Mason City Meet

Miss Perna Lohn, Wartburg librarian, and Mrs. Margery Gregory, assistant, attended a meeting of the Iowa Library Association last Thursday at Mason City.

Miss Lohn was also present at the banquet of the Association Friday evening where Marie Sandoz, authoress, was chief speaker.

"Miss Sandoz is perhaps best known for her 'Old Jules,'" stated Miss Lohn. "This is the story awarded the Atlantic Monthly prize for the 'most interesting and distinctive book of non-fiction in 1935.'"

Chellevold Named To Committee Post

Dr. John Chellevold, dean of faculty, has been appointed to the Mathematics Committee of the College Scholarship and Placement Tests for 1959.

This committee has six members, three of whom are from Iowa tax supported institutions of higher learning. The other three members are from non-tax supported colleges of Iowa.

Sermon In Song Returns, Dr. Holm, Both For Convo

Hobart Mitchell will return to Wartburg Tuesday to give his "Harvest Sermon in Song in convo. Thursday's convo will be a Reformation Service conducted by Dr. Bernard Holm, Wartburg Seminary, Dubuque, in connection with Reformation Sunday, Nov. 2.

"Sermon in Song" is a new approach originated by Mitchell to combine sacred music and the written word without any break in the continuity of the presentation.

Mitchell, a Quaker, has given his "Sermon in Song" on many university and college campuses throughout the United States. A concert baritone, he has studied music and holds an M. A. degree in American Literature from Columbia University. He has done much writing and is the originator of "Poetry in Song," which is GRETCHEN UTKE, junior from Oriska, N. D., delivers a song as part of last night's Kastle Kapers annual variety show.

History Teachers Will Host Conf.

Wartburg's History Department on Nov. 1 will act as host to the 11th annual Conference of College History Teachers of Iowa.

Program for the day is as follows: 10 a.m. coffee in the Den; 10:45 — talk by Professor Y. Armajani, Macalester College, St. Paul, Minn., on "The Crisis in the Middle East"; 12:15 — luncheon; 1:30 — talk by Prof. Clark C. Bloom, State University of Iowa, on "Economics and the Better Understanding of History."

Mitchell

presented in a like manner to colleges.

Dr. Holm teaches Reformation history on a post-graduate level.

Homecoming is here!

It arrived last night via Kastle Kapers and will vanish tomorrow night when the Artist Series curtain falls. Peppering the period between are a football game, coffee hour, banquet, Parents Reception, ball, worship services, dormitory dedication and Queen's Reception.

"Tame the Tigers" is the cry as Wartburg Knights tangle with Iowa Wesleyan Tigers at Schield Stadium at 2 p.m. today. Homecoming Queen Karla Edgar, senior, announced at Kastle Kapers last night, will be officially crowned by Sharon Folkerts, Cedar Falls, last year's regent, at halftime.

Balloons Will Blow

Wartburg's first touchdown will signal the release of helium-filled balloons purchased by spectators. Owner of the balloon traveling the farthest will win $5. Last year's champion balloon landed in Franklinton, La.

Alumni will gather at the Alumni Coffee Hour in the Little Theater at 4 p.m. Planning the event are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wiederanders. Wiederanders is a member of the Wartburg Mathematics Department and a Wartburg alumnus. Reunion for the class of 1948 is set for Carver's Restaurant at 6:30 p.m.

Bib'n' Tucker Tonight

Homecoming Banquet, based on the general theme, "Firm Foundations," will begin at 6:30 tonight in St. Paul's Parish House. Main speaker is Dr. Arthur Becker, professor of pastoral counseling at Capital Seminary, Columbus, Ohio. Son of Wartburg Pres. C. H. Becker, the speaker is a 1942 Wartburg graduate.

Acting as master of ceremonies is Jim Roever, Reedsburg, Wis., a 1957 Wartburg grad. Student entertainment will be provided by musicians John Loesch, Royal, Ill., and Andrea Richardson, Jeffers, Minn.

Parents Received

Parents will be feted at the annual Parents Reception held in Knights Gymnasium at 8 p.m. The Blue Dominoes of New Hampton will take the stage at 9 p.m. for "Harvest Holiday." Wartburg's second Homecoming ball. Parents are invited to remain for the semi-formal dance, according to dance chairman Norm Litzner. Tickets will be sold at the door.

Conducting Homecoming worship services at St. Paul's Lutheran Church Sunday is Dr. A. H. Braun, president of the Minnesota District of the American Lutheran Church. Dr. Braun, who will speak at both the 8 a.m. and the 10:45 a.m. services, has based his sermon topic, "Foundations That Endure," on Luke 6: 47-49.

Dedication Tomorrow

Clinton Hall will Sunday become the fifth building dedicated at Wartburg in four years. The men's dormitory will be officially dedicated during a ceremony in Knights Gymnasium at 1:30 p.m.

Dr. E. G. Fritschel, third vice president of the American Lutheran Church and Central

Homecoming -- Many Things

Homecoming—a time when countless assorted dreams and schemes suddenly fell together into one big weekend.

Homecoming—a time when a sea of new faces swarms over your life, and you realize that time is truly passing.

Homecoming—a time when old grads and moms and dads come to the conclusion that college really is worth-while.

Homecoming—a time when Old Main doesn't look so old, and the flag on the pole seems to wave pretty high.

Homecoming—a time when the cafeteria fare seems to be almost — well, not quite—as good as Mother prepares.

Homecoming—a time when a stadium full of former players shout and pout for a win and can't help coaching every play with their hearts.

Homecoming—a time when baton twirlers shiver, bands seem to play better and hot coffee sells like a wonder drug.

Homecoming—a time when suits are cleaned, dresses fitted, shoes shined, neckties borrowed and roommates are worth their weight in gold.

Homecoming—a time when sons look taller, dads look smaller and mothers wear a million dollars' worth of smiles.

Homecoming—a time when so many speakers seem to take so long to say so little about so few things that you listen.

Homecoming—a time when rooms look too clean, beds are hardly slept in and stuffed animals finally return to their rightful places by pillows.

Homecoming—a time when laughter sounds like singing, shouts are like trumpeting and a touchdown cheer reaches heaven.

Homecoming—a time of tired feet, nostalgic thoughts and a feeling "hitting home" that college is pretty wonderful, after all.

Castle Magazine Offers Outlet For Creativity

Each spring a literary magazine, now known as The Castle, appears on the Wartburg campus. It represents the best submitted creative writing of the college and reflects an often unadvertised phase of Wartburg life — creative thought.

In the past, this reflection has been sadly lacking, while students have devoted their greater energies towards assimilating more popular, bandwagon interests. This year we hope for a brighter picture.

Where do you come in? The Castle needs good creative writing in large quantities. We are convinced that in a student body of nine hundred, there are enough students sufficiently interested in writing to contribute their time and talent.

Perhaps you have already worked on other literary publications, or you have published material and are looking for a further outlet for your work. Or perhaps you have never tried to write but feel you have talent and are interested. Then we encourage you to write for The Castle.

All material that has not been previously published, will be considered, whether it be poetry, short stories, personal experiences of interest, criticism, book reviews or essays. All these phases of writing are open to you if you are willing to work and above all aim for the highest quality. Alumni also are encouraged to send work.

The final deadline for all material to be turned in is Dec. 15. You may bring your material to The Castle office located in the Publications Building where an envelope has been placed on the wall with the words "The Castle" printed on it.

All manuscripts should be typed and double-spaced. If you want more information you may contact Robert Mayer by phoning 301 on the Wartburg Exchange.

We want The Castle for 1959 to be of the highest quality, and only the writers can provide this excellence. By writing, the reward will be yours and perhaps the satisfaction of seeing your work recognized and in print.

Robert Mayer, Castle Editor

A cry of anguish is heard in front of the Union mailboxes: "The only day in the year I get mail and I left my key in the dorm!"

But consolation is quickly given: "Relax — it's only an Oppie card."

Traffic-stopper for sophomore girls is the sight of freshman girls in the Student Union after 8 p.m., freshman hours. The sophs see red and turn green when the violators persist.

The college optimist is the float chairman who was sure his float would be finished a week before Homecoming.

Knight Life

By Don Claggett

Homecoming, according to Webster, is a coming or returning to one's home. Thus, we extend to all alumni a most hearty welcome back to their home away from home — Wartburg College.

Ike's tour of the Midwest included an appearance at Marion to visit a cornpicking contest. Ike didn't enter the contest, but in the final analysis, he held more ears than anyone else.

Louie Becker and Keith Lunde report that Kastle Kapers was a very satisfying endeavor. Bob Loslo was seen around rehearsals again this year; however, no Asiatic flu followed. It was nice to see that the crowd exceeded the cast by a goodly number.

Best of luck to the team this afternoon. If Wartburg goes undefeated this year, I for one would not be surprised if the Knights were to receive a bowl bid. It goes without saying that they have already earned special recognition.

Banquet menu was unannounced at the time of ticket sales. An appropriate menu would include tenderized tiger meat. At the price they got for the tickets, it seems that tiger meat could easily be served without a financial loss.

Cotta House has been blessed this year with an orator who has a knack for ambiguous statements. Dick Brandt when asked about Cotta House unity came out with this quip, "Companionship at Cotta is unspeakable."

Again this year the lighting power is taking periodic rests. When the lights went out in Grossmann last week, one Grossmann II man took the situation in hand by advising that everyone make the most of it and act quickly and calmly by "hitting the sack."

Don Sahling and Ron Krueger want to know, "Now that chapel starts at 6:30 p.m., why doesn't everyone attend?"

Don't forget to launch a balloon in the traditional balloon race today at the game. The way things have been going for the United States, you could easily break Cape Canaveral's record.

Merry Homecoming to all and to all a good night. See you after the mid-terms — in Oppie's office.

Years Recounted

Do You Remember—

WHEN Wartburg College nearly doubled in size in one year? If so, you were here in 1946-47.

WHEN President Becker came home from Chicago in glory with North-Central accreditation tucked away in his pocket, to be met by the Wartburg Band, and taken to a reception in the old North Hall Dining-room, even though it was 10:30 p.m. and time for all good children to be in bed — all this to be climaxed with no classes on Friday? If so, you were here in 1947-48.

WHEN students came back in the fall to be pointed to Wartburg College by the 1948 graduating class' gift of a stone erection and sign on the recently acquired land bordering Bremer Avenue, which brought Wartburg out of the back streets of Waverly and proudly out front to the very main street of the town? If so, you were here in 1948-49.

WHEN the Wartburg basketball team first played a game on the floor of our own Knights Gym instead of the Waverly High School, and Artist Series likewise transferred from the high school auditorium to Knights Gym? If so, you were here in 1949-50.

WHEN Wartburg students received grade reports every six weeks like high school kids? If so, you were here before 1950-51.

WHEN Chris Huber was called before and questioned by state police because of doodling in a history class, said doodling involving to all appearances plans for a bank robbery, in which Huber was to be aided and abetted by "Al" and "Mugsy" DeWeerth, "Pretty Boy" Schmitt and "Three-finger" Ziebarth? If so, you were here in 1951-52.

WHEN the entire American Lutheran Church honored the Wartburg College campus and Waverly by meeting in convention here? If so, you were here in 1952-53.

WHEN Wartburg first became accredited by the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education? If so, you were here in 1953-54.

WHEN students came back in the fall to an honest-to-goodness Student Union, for the first time, with the cafeteria moved out of North Hall, the recreation room and Den moved out of the basement of Wartburg Hall, likewise the post office, and Student Senate offices moved out of what is now the Education Office in Luther Hall? If so, you were here in 1954-55.

WHEN Dean of Students Earnest Oppermann hit the big time on TV, radio and all other news agencies with his accusation of Big 10 "Professionalism," which centered around the transferral of basketball star Ray Gross to the University of Wisconsin? If so, you were here in 1955-56.

WHEN the Board of Regents passed the resolution to "permit campus dancing under carefully controlled supervision"? If so, you were here in 1956-57.

WHEN the Asian flue turned the Wartburg campus into a pseudo-infirmary, emptying classrooms and bringing campus life to a near standstill? If so, you were here in 1957-58.

If you remember any events before this time, you were here before bound issues of the Trumpet were collected in the publications office.

Mission Talk

By Kriesel, Munter
And Schroeder

What do you know about Lutheran mission work? Three Wartburg students, all members of the Mission Fellowship Society, have undertaken the task of keeping tabs on mission work at home and abroad for Trumpet readers. That is the purpose of this column. — Editor

Lutheran Mission in New Guinea, recently formed into the Evangelical Lutheran Church of New Guinea, is commonly believed to be supported financially and materially just by the American Lutheran Church. This is not true, since it is a joint-union program between the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Australia, the Neuendettelsau Mission Society of Germany and the American Lutheran Church.

German and American churches held separate mission fields in New Guinea until World War II. After the war, they united in a common effort to rebuild the missions and accepted the offer of the Australian Church to help.

In July of this year, Indonesians forced the Dutch out of the country of Indonesia and now claim that Dutch New Guinea is also part of their territory. To this day, nothing more than a threat has been made against New Guinea, but if the claim were enforced, it would put the New Guinea missions under pressure again. This pressure could come from the Communists, who are backing the anti-Dutch movement.

"I'VE GOT THE HORSE RIGHT HERE, her name is Guenivere," says medieval looking student body pres., Jim Schwarz.

Jim will be in the saddle, leading today's HC parade inside Sir Victor, Knight armor.

Johansen Recognized For Attributes

By Tom Christensen

Die Deutschmen got hausfraus, sauerbraten und plockwurst, Dey also got braunschweiger, sandkuchen und bier wurst, Und now dey even got somting to add to dis meal— A topic of talk dat all of dem schpiel— Dey converse about football — some new kind of game— Und how die alt Wartburgers are gaining in fame Because of some foreigner — Johansen, die Dane!

Ja, the Danes still persist in being recognized, and the Deutschmen (being an intelligent and discerning type of folk) still persist in recognizing them as the possessors of some recognizable attributes. Naturally, "recognizable attributes" may not necessarily be considered as "desirable attributes." This depends, of course, upon the party who is recognizing something as being either "desirable" or "undesirable."

For instance, in the case of Coach Norman B. Johansen, those who are advocates of Wartburg College consider him as being one of those Danes who can be recognized as possessing some quite desirable attributes.

On the contrary, those who are not advocates of Wartburg College, and are, in fact, opposed to Wartburg College (especially those who form competitive organizations which in turn form Wartburg's opposition) quite naturally consider this same Dane as possessing undesirable attributes. (This could all be worked out much simpler in diagram form, but sufficient space has not been provided.

There's A Reason

The simple reason accounting for this varied opinion of Johansen is the fact that his football team is winning. The Wartburg faction is quite pleased about winning and the opposition is quite displeased about losing.

The term "foreigner" previously used in this article is admittedly outmoded, for the Deutschmen on Wartburg campus have long since forgotten that Johansen is a Dane. They have happily accepted the fact that Johansen is tutoring their beloved Knights to victories on the gridiron, and no longer cares whether or not sauerkraut is his favorite dish.

Johansen has been connected with sports in some way for as long as he can recall. He participated in high school football, basketball and track at Clinton, where he was born and raised. (Some folks around Clinton still claim he was weaned on "sporting bread," though this may be pure fiction.)

"That was about my only interest in high school," he says. "I was strictly a sportsman."

Jo Attends Teachers

He first attended college at Iowa State Teachers in Cedar Falls, where he played under the late "Buck" Starbeck. In 1941-1942 he was a member of Starbeck's "mighty midget" crew which took conference honors both years.

Before he finished his junior year at Teachers College, Johansen was called to participate in World War II. As a member of the U. S. Air Force he served as a transport pilot for 14 months overseas.

During his overseas duty, he once "flew the hump" — a direct flight over the Himalayas from Calcutta, India, to Kunming, China.

Upon his return from active duty, he attended the University of Iowa for a year with aspirations of becoming an engineer. However, in 1947 he returned to State Teachers College, from which he graduated in 1948.

Johansen's first coaching assignment was in the high school at Pella. He coached football there for two years as well as instructing safety education, physical education and general science.

From Pella he went to University High at Iowa City, where he became head of the Industrial Arts Department and line coach of the football squad, which went undefeated that season.

Dane Becomes Knight

In the fall of 1951 he joined the Wartburg faculty as assistant football coach and head wrestling coach. In 1952 he took over as head football coach and has remained in that capacity ever since.

Speaking of his current football squad, Johansen remarked, "This year's team could very easily develop into the finest Wartburg has ever seen. The boys are probably the best as far as talent and potential are concerned. They are also a well-balanced outfit, although we do lack depth."

"As far as this team actually being the tops in Wartburg history, we won't know until the season's over and we can look at the records."

Wins Not Everything

Johansen has emphasized that he feels "winning is not all-important." He firmly believes in the welfare of his boys and their education in becoming better men for society.

COACH NORM JOHANSEN currently mentoring his best football season at Wartburg, looks on with anticipation for today's big tilt with Wesleyan.

However, although he doesn't coach specifically to win, he admits it quite assuredly "figures in."

"We believe in building character," he says, "but not by losing. Some colleges are placing football first and education second, but this is definitely not Wartburg's philosophy. We consider football a valuable asset in the education of the whole man, but it is not emphasized at the expense of more significant elements in education."

Johansen believes football is much more complex game today than it was only 15 years ago when he was playing.

"It's like playing a game of checkers," he says, "and therefore coaching itself involves so much more than it did a few years ago. You have to employ a certain amount of psychology and learn how to handle the individual. There are few 'brow-beaters' around any more."

Coach Needs Assistants

Because of this growing complexity in the game, Johansen feels he could hardly do without his assistants Bill Fruehling and Bob Campbell, who have been doing a superb job this season.

Ja, it appears as though the Wartburg Deutschmen did themselves a favor when they stepped across the national boundary line and secured a Danish football coach.

Harriers Follow Luther Runners; Fade Behind TC

Wartburg's cross-country squad traveled to Decorah last Saturday only to be outrun by the Luther Norsemen. Norse runners chalked up 20 points to Wartburg's 37.

Gary Moody, junior from Cheboygan, Mich., was the first Wartburg runner to cross the finish line with a third. Bob Boettcher and Don Dietzler paced across for sixth and seventh-place honors, as Ted Kalkwarf and Roger Hubbard placed ninth and tenth.

Moody

Tuesday's contest with ISTC set a new record on the Waverly course as ISTC downed Wartburg 15 to 47. Two ISTC runners shared the first-place berth with a time of 12 mins. and 16 secs. for the 2.6-mile course. The previous record was 12 mins. and 55.5 secs.

Don Dietzler crossed the finish line first for Wartburg to cop sixth-place honors as he edged out Gary Moody, who had to settle for seventh. Ted Kalkwarf and Gerald Haffner captured 10th and 11th, and Roger Hubbard and Dave Sieffkes came in 13th and 14th, respectively.

This Wednesday the thinclads travel to Platteville. On Nov. 5 they will journey to Winona State College, Minnesota. This is the first year of cross country for both of these squads.

Gridmen Try Wesleyan At 2

Match 3-0-1 With Once-Tamed Tigers

By Steve Van Guilder
With a 3-0-1 conference record, the Wartburg eleven faces Iowa Wesleyan at 2 p.m. today for their Homecoming tilt.

After turning back Buena Vista 17-0 last week, the IWC Tigers, with four wins against one loss, go into today's game trailing the Knights by a half game in conference play.

With the return of 16 lettermen and a year of experience, Coach Edd Bowers puts his hope on a basic wing T offense, line experience and a fast-moving back field.

Lewis Leads Tigers

Rushing leaders for the Iowa Wesleyan Tigers are Don Lewis with 83 net yards per game and Ed Ross with 50.8. IWC will be relying on sophomore quarterback Dave Leatherby, who had tossed 71 passes and connected on 37 for a 100-yard average in five games. Leatherby's main targets for his 58 per cent passing average are end Goerge Lundquist and Don Lewis, halfback.

In last week's game, the Tigers held the Buena Vista Beavers' quarterback, Lanny Grigsby, seventh in the nation's small college offense leaders, to a passing and rushing total of two net yards. The IWC team held Buena Vista to a net yard gain of 89 for the game, while the Tigers racked up 262.

Wesleyan Rough

After ending last year's conference play with one win and seven losses, as the result of a young, inexperienced team, the Tigers are out for top honors in their '58 campaign. The last time Iowa Wesleyan won the Iowa Conference football championship was in 1953. Last year at the meeting of IWC and Wartburg, the Knights won by a score of 14-7.

Traveling to St. Cloud, Minn., for a non-conference tilt last Saturday, Wartburg took a 15-6 decision over St. Cloud State.

FOLLOW THE TEAM TO DUBUQUE NEXT SATURDAY

'W' Club Elects VanWyngarden Sept. Athlete

Tom VanWyngarden, sophomore from Manson, was selected as Athlete of the Month for September at the last meeting of the "W" Club, according to president Gil Wes-

Tom

VanWyngarden leads Wartburg grid men with a 7.01 yard average in rushing, carrying 31 times for 218 yards. The sturdy halfback has scored one touchdown for the Jomen and caught a pass for two points after touchdown in the St. Cloud game last Saturday.

In today's game with Iowa Wesleyan, fans will see VanWyngarden at the halfback slot where he earned his letter last year.

Lineman Of The Week

Unanimous choice for lineman of the week is John Hugo, junior transfer student from Waldorf Junior College. Hugo, a 195-lb. guard, hails originally from Mason City, where he was an all-conference player as a prep.

John blocked a punt in the fourth quarter of the St. Cloud game, which enabled the Knights to recover on the two-yard line and tie the score 6-6, eventually winning the contest 15-6.

Hugo is married and the father of one.

Picking Up Splinters

By Wilbur Flachman

Wartburg football teams of past years haven't given alumni much to boast about. Since 1935, when the college moved here from Clinton, Knights of the gridiron have won only 53 contests, while losing 100 and breaking even 8 times.

And in all these years, a black and orange squad has not been able to bring home a conference championship. In 1953, Wartburg fortunes soared to new heights when Ted Fritschel, Bill Bomhoff and Stan Kittleson led the Knights to the Northern half championship in the split Iowa Conference of those days.

However, Iowa Wesleyan, Wartburg's HC opponent today, claimed the loop trophy with a 33-14 victory in the divisional playoff. But even with this stimulation, the best total-season record the '53 team could muster was a 4-5 slate.

Judging from past records, four wins in one season is a banner year. Five wins in one schedule is a record. A loop championship in '58 would certainly make history. The 4-0-1 mark thus far scored by the 1958 Knights already rates them with greats of the past.

But this year's squad isn't satisfied with what it has already accomplished. These fellows want the whole cake. A Homecoming victory today over Wesleyan's Tigers would just about put Coach Norm Johansen and his boys in the loop driver's seat. And despite several poor seasons otherwise, Wartburg teams of the past have been famous for winning Homecoming contests.

Since 1935, Knight gridders have come up with 12 Homecoming victories, have lost eight and tied two of the festive games.

Oct. 26, 1935 — Wartburg fell victim to a brilliant Aurora College passing attack and went down to defeat, 19-0.

Oct. 21, 1936 — Knights gained their first Homecoming win in history, scoring twice on drives of 70 and 51 yards, to whip Northwestern Junior College 14-0.

Oct. 22, 1937 — Platteville Miners were trampled 28-0 by Coach Elmer Hertel's Knights for the only Wartburg win of the season.

Oct. 15, 1938 — Smooth running game of William Penn subdued Knights 12-0.

Oct. 21, 1939 — Wartburg eleven tied Buena Vista 6-6 on 85-yard TD march late in the fourth period.

Oct. 12, 1940 — Quakers of William Penn once more stymied Wartburg 7-0.

Oct. 18, 1941 — Wartburg made national headlines all over the country after a 7-0 win over Buena Vista. Chicago Tribune head read, "Wartburg Team Finally Wins a Game." The win was Wartburg's first conference victory since being admitted to the loop in 1937 and ended a 23-game winless streak.

Oct. 24, 1942 — Fortunes change. Knights smother Western Union 33-0 and are unbeaten and unscored upon in four successive contests.

1943 — Wartime — no schedule.

Oct. 21, 1944 — Bill Hanson's first period TD let Wartburg down Simpson 6-0.

Oct. 20, 1945 — Luther took it on the chin 20-6 before fired-up Homecoming gathering.

Oct. 19, 1946 — One of most brilliant comebacks in Wartburg history gave Black and Orange 12-7 nod over BV. End Waldo Platte snared a pass from QB Elg Allen on final play of game that capped 85-yard march in last minute.

Nov. 1, 1947 — Trailing 20-6 at half, Wartburg roars back and scores on final play again, to nip Luther 27-20.

Oct. 23, 1948 — Wartburg easily clips Simpson 26-13.

Oct. 15, 1949 — Knights cop their ninth consecutive Homecoming win, 21-7, at the expense of Westmar.

Oct. 14, 1950 — Streak ends as Knights lose first HC game in a decade, 25-13 before 1,200 disappointed fans.

Oct. 27, 1951 — Powerful Luther polishes off Coach Earnest Oppermann's Knights 34-0.

Oct. 18, 1952 — Halfback Cy Pick gallops 95 yards with opening kick-off return to spur locals to 14-12 win over BV.

Oct. 24, 1953 — Loras stuns everyone, thumping Knights 26-2.

Oct. 23, 1954 — Norm Johansen puts in everything but the bench as the Knights, led by Chuck Bose's three TD's, thunders over Upper Iowa 40-12.

Oct. 29, 1955 — Undefeated Parsons holds Wartburg 26-19 in a cold, gusty snowstorm.

Oct. 27, 1956 — Central's loop champs make Wartburg fans sad with 20-6 win.

Oct. 26, 1957 — A 76-yard run by Tom VanWyngarden helps Knights to 13-0 win over Dubuque before first Homecoming crowd in new Schield Stadium.

Oct. 25, 1958 — Knights are playing Iowa Wesleyan in a Homecoming game for the first time in history.

9 Hoop Veterans Do Early Work

Nine letterwinners from last year's NCAA tourney team will be on hand when coach Dr. Axel Bundgaard officially opens basketball practice, Monday Nov. 3.

Squad members have been working out on their own in past weeks, since Iowa Conference rules do not permit organized practice to commence before Nov. 1.

Returning vets include seniors Gil Wessel, Waverly, Denney Wessels, Independence, Jim Schwarz, Middleton Wis., Wayne Slack, Waterloo, and John Luthro, Eagle Grove.

Juniors back are starting center John Tuecke, Garnavillo, John Mehlhaus, Dysart, and Norm Remmers, Adams, Neb.

Dave Jensen, Owatonna, Minn., is the lone soph letterman and the only one of the hardcourt candidates playing football at present. Jensen will join practice at the close of the grid season.

Artist Series Opens With Danish Group

By Bill Goetz

Wartburg's Homecoming activities for 1958 again conclude with a presentation of the Wartburg Artist Series, first of four outstanding concerts for the 1958-59 season of what the Des Moines Register has termed the "top college artist series in the nation."

The Danish National Orchestra will perform Sunday evening in Knights Gym. Under the batons of Thomas Jensen and John Frandsen, the 96-member orchestra will present a mixed program of standard symphonic works and Danish music.

The group is touring the U.S. under the patronage of His Majesty, King Frederik IX of Denmark, following a highly successful tour of the U.S. six years ago.

Future attractions of this year's Artist Series calendar are the Vienna Academy Chorus, Jose Greco and his Spanish Ballet, and Marian Anderson. Directed by Guenther Theuring, the Vienna Academy Chorus will appear here on Nov. 23.

Those interested in Spanish dancing will have a chance to see this art form at near-perfection on Feb. 19, 1959, when Jose Greco brings his Spanish Ballet to Wartburg.

One of the all-time high lights in Artist Series history will be the concert by Marian Anderson on March 24, 1959. Each of these concerts is to be held in Knights Gym, beginning at 8 p.m.

The Wartburg College Artist Series has had a long and illustrious history. As early as 1916, before the college was located at Waverly, it had a program much similar to the present Artist Series, although it was not until nearly 1940 that nationally and internationally known performers began to appear in Waverly and the Artist Series began to achieve a wide reputation.

Since that time the Artist Series has been under the able guidance of Dr. A. W. Swensen, Professor of Chemistry at Wartburg. To him must go a large share of the credit for consistently increasing the stature of the performers appearing under the sponsorship of the Artist Series.

Dr. Swensen says that he has always attempted to "maintain a high cultural level" in all Artist Series attractions. Who could disagree?

This year's preliminary sale of season tickets has elicited the most enthusiastic response ever, according to Dr. Swensen. He feels that the quality of this year's performances will match those of previous outstanding artists, including Jascha Heifetz, Artur Schnabel, Rudolf Serkin, Charles Laughton, the Ballet Russe De Monte Carlo, the Boston Pops Tour Orchestra, and two outstanding choral groups — the Robert Shaw Chorale and the Roger Wagner Chorale.

Anyone interested in obtaining further information on forthcoming Artist Series concerts for the 1958-59 season may do so by writing Dr. Swensen, in care of Wartburg College. Tickets for these performances may also be obtained by writing Dr. Swensen.

APG Breakfasts With Alums Sun.

Alpha Phi Gamma's Beta Delta Chapter, will entertain members past and present at an annual alumni breakfast tomorrow morning at the home of the group's adviser, Mrs. Earl Garland, 1309 2nd Ave. SW.

In traditional fashion, members will be served by this year's pledges from 8:30-10 a.m. Present pledges are Larry Everett and Phyllis Haglund, seniors.

Debaters To Attend Grinnell Discussion

Six future debaters and their adviser, Robert Smith, Speech Department head, will attend the Grinnell Discussion Conference on Oct. 31 as a warm-up for the coming forensic action.

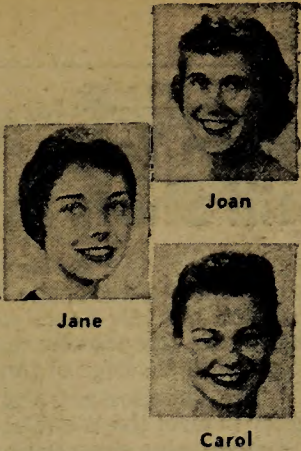

Students attending the conference will be junior Dean Engbrecht and sophomores Lois Max, Dave Shetter, Ken Skala, Deanna Stob and freshman Al Putz.

Discussion topic for the meet will be "Resolved, That Further Development of Nuclear Weapons Should Be Prohibited."

SOPH COED ENGAGED

Helen Lichte, Wartburg sophomore from Madison, Wis., recently became engaged to David Nelson, Poynette, Wis. No immediate plans have been made.

Tripping With The Trio

From Hahn, Kucharik and Becker's "den of inquiry" expounds, "Pass the hammer! Who ate that last cookie? Will you get that tiger off my bed? Who let that Wartburg Knight in here?"

Sympathize with us — we are victims of Homecoming preparation.

Shake your shakers! Ring your bells! Fly your balloons, and merciful heavens, don't forget your Homecoming button. The Tigers will be let out of their cage to meet the Knights at 2 p.m. today in Schield Stadium.

High lights of the weekend are the Banquet, to be held at St. Paul's Parish Hall at 6:30 p.m. today, followed by the "Harvest Dance" at 8 p.m. in Knights Gymnasium.

Homecoming service will be held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church at 8 a.m. and at 10:45 a.m. The Wartburg Choir will sing at the 10:45 a.m. service.

See Clinton Hall shine Sunday afternoon. Dedication service will be at 2 p.m. More information concerning the dedication can be found on the back page.

The Homecoming committee invites everyone to the Queen's Tea Sunday, Oct. 26, from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. in Clinton Hall Lounge.

A reminder, girls. . . . If you have gained too much weight over the weekend, WAA meets Wednesday at 7 p.m. in Knights Gym.

Grossmann Hall Lounge will be the scene of action for the Science Club meeting at 7:30 p.m. Science majors, or anyone else interested, are cordially invited.

Which witch is which? Be sure you're well acquainted with your acquaintances before you come to the Pi Sigma All-school Masquerade Party Oct. 31, at 7:30 p.m. in the Knights Gymnasium. Only 15 cents per head. Prizes will be given for the best costumes.

Flunk now and avoid the rush. On second thought, study and stay on. No, celebrate! Midsemester exams are ending Friday, Oct. 31.

Moon Talk, Peace Balks; Still Shots In The Dark

By Naaman Laiser

About two weeks ago, the moon had a narrow escape from the U.S. Air Force rocket, which, at the end of its 79,000-mile trip into space, decided that odds were 10 to 1 against its invasion of the lunar atmosphere.

The Russians are probably working at their top capacity to meet the Western Challenge in space exploration and might even relax their wild dreams over the Quemoy-Matsu Islands for a while.

Ours is an age of tremendous technical achievements which have been made possible by scientific advancement. This is an obvious observation.

The more easily accessible reply to queries about the significance of experimental science and its countless achievements would be "To make this world a better place to live in." With the possibility of space travel, man would probably like to explore other planets with the intention of living there.

But while it takes individuals to bring about these things, actually the individual is of very little significance in comparison with the relationship between mankind and the object of its aspirations.

Life, for the maintenance of which man is laboring so heavily through science and other means at hand, cannot be fully lived in a manner only materialistic.

Morality, the finer things that affect life, and other non-materialistic endeavors must form a part of a fuller, richer and more accomplished kind of life.

International politics, at least, show the frightening depths that form the level at which the non-materialistic realities of man are considered.

Communism has taken over China and the communists want to employ the President Chiang-U.S. episode as a means of breaking the backbone of the free world, namely, its principles.

By making President Chiang realize what a senior Chinese student on campus, Ming-Te (Charlie) Chen, says, a disastrous war could be avoided.

As Charlie put it last week, "Over 50% of the Chinese are at home with communism, and only about 25% would have anything to do with Chiang."

The rest of them would rather have neither President Chiang's government nor the communists. But what about principles?

Is it at all an impossibility that eventually a technical, advancement-minded, materialistic giant, possessing a dwarfish spirit, will succeed mankind? Mankind has nature to dominate and space to conquer, but the individual has himself to tame and to be at peace with.

Faith Dettmann Is At Retreat

Faith Dettmann, sophomore, will represent the Wartburg Lutheran Student Association at the Iowa Ecumenical Retreat being held this Saturday and Sunday at the Bible Camp, Story City.

The retreat begins Saturday afternoon and continues through Sunday. The topic for discussion and study will be "Life and Mission of the Church."

Students attending the retreat are from the various campus religious organizations throughout Iowa.

Oppermann Hosts Past SB Leaders

Ten former student body presidents and vice presidents as well as present incumbents, Jim Schwarz and Herb Hafermann, were guests of Dean of Students Earnest Oppermann at an informal dinner at Carver's Restaurant last evening.

Oppermann's purpose in entertaining the former student leaders was to initiate an informal custom of ex-presidential get-togethers at special occasions, such as Homecoming.

Pre-Thes Go To Seminary

Wartburg pre-theological students plan a trip to the Wartburg Seminary at Dubuque Nov. 1.

Each year two visitation days are set up at the seminary, with one in the spring and the other in the fall, stated the Rev. Walter Tillmanns, Chi Rho adviser.

Purpose of the fall visitation is to acquaint the pre-theological students with the surroundings and the physical elements of the seminary. The spring visitation consists of class visitations and registration procedures.

Play Contest In Progress, Says Lestrud

Wartburg is this year sponsoring the first State of Iowa Collegiate One-Act Play Contest, according to Vernon Lestrud of the Wartburg Speech and Dramatics Department.

Winning entry will receive $25 and the honor of having his play produced on May 6, 8 and 9. Second prize will be $10 and possible production.

Lestrud Iowans Eligible Any student who is registered in a college or university in Iowa during the 1958-1959 school year is eligible to enter.

Original plays, dramatizations and collaborations (with rights cleared) and musical comedies or operettas, together with lyrics, are all eligible, but will be judged as dramatic rather than as musical compositions.

Judges Are Local

Judges of the contest are Dr. G. J. Neumann, chairman of the English Department, Wartburg College; Dr. Edwin Sandberg, chairman of the Freshman English program here; Robert Smith, chairman of the Speech Department, Wartburg College; and Vernon Lestrud, also of the Speech Department here.

All entries must be submitted by March 15, 1959. Winners will be announced on April 1, 1959.

Entry blanks and additional information may be obtained from Lestrud.

Max To Des Moines For Educational Meet

Dr. Herbert Max, head of the Wartburg Education Department, will attend the meeting of the State Advisory Committee on Curriculum Standards Oct. 28 at Des Moines. J. C. Wright, state superintendent of public schools, is chairman.

Final Call Made For Annual Pics

Final call for Fortress pictures is next week, according to Editor Larry Everett, senior.

Anyone who has not had his individual picture taken for the Fortress may do so Tuesday, Oct. 28, from 3-5:30 in the Wartburg Hall Lounge.

"This will be the last chance to have your pictures appear in the '59 Fortress," stated the editor.

"If undergrads wish to order pictures, they may do so in the near future when representatives from the studio will be on campus. Seniors must place an order at this time.

"Watch the convo bulletin for the exact time and place," Everett added.

Student Peers Ponder Pops, Memorial Plans

By Linda Mugridge

Pops Concert, memorial fund, an away-from-home game, committee appointments and reports on the student retreat, Homecoming and Student Welfare Committee filled the Student Senate agenda Monday night.

Choice of instrumental or vocal entertainment for the Pops Concert was debated by the Senate after senior Fred Langrock, concert chairman, reported on available groups. The committee, composed of sophomores Ed Skay, Carolyn Kellogg and Jane Becker, favors vocalists, according to Langrock.

"The last two years we've had bands," he said, "and we thought it was time for a change."

Suggested entertainers, who will be available for March or April performances, include the Hi Lo's, Four Preps, Highlanders, Crewcuts, Ralph Flanagan and his band, Les Elgart's band and Roger Williams.

Senate recommended that the committee do further research on Roger Williams, notify the Senate before signing a contract and secure Senate approval of the group. Early action by the committee was stressed by both Langrock and Student Body Pres. Jim Schwarz.

In other action, it was moved that the Senate Executive Committee draw up a written policy in regard to the memorial fund. Money from the fund is allocated to students and faculty in time of bereavement or extended illness. Although this procedure has been customary, a formal policy has never been set up, according to Schwarz.

Administrative approval on an official out-of-town game has been withheld, it was also reported. Reasons given were that Wartburg could not assume the responsibility of a large number of students on the road and that such an action would place undue emphasis on one game.

Final committee appointments were approved at the meeting, and the entire committee slate for the 1958-59 school year was accepted. New appointments include freshmen Arthur Baker and Barbara Vick, academic life; freshmen Alfred Putz and Rhoda Schmidt, public relations; junior Joel Diemer and freshman Edward Knop, religious activities; and freshmen Pearce Konold and Don Dietzler, student welfare.

What is the relationship between Lutheran Brotherhood and the Lutheran Church?

At a Lutheran Church convention, 40 years ago, in St. Paul, a prominent layman stood up to persuade the group that Lutherans should work together to help each other in time of trouble.

To make his point, he used a simple illustration: "Suppose two brothers made an agreement," he said. "Each promised that if the other died, he would provide for the widow and her children. That would be, in effect, an insurance contract."

A few days later the organization now called Lutheran Brotherhood was incorporated by church leaders. Its purposes were "to aid the Lutheran Church; to foster justice, charity and benevolence; to provide education . . . to encourage industry, savings, thrift . . . to furnish relief and protection to its members, their dependents and beneficiaries, through the payment of benefits in case of death or disability."

While its primary purpose is to give protection to members of the Lutheran Church, the Lutheran Brotherhood also helps build churches by loaning money . . . helps train church leaders by providing scholarships . . . helps churches grow by giving money and supplies.

The Lutheran Brotherhood serves members of all Lutheran Churches with "Living Benefits."
